

I urge you not to allow the challenge by the Consumer Bankers Association (CBA) to soften Indiana's do not call law. Allowing them to market their products using MY telephone that I pay for, is an invasion of my privacy. Regardless of whether I have done business with one of their members, I do not want them calling my home.